

About this Site

Girl Scouts of Rhode Island, Inc. is grateful to the New Media Group, a student club at Community College of Rhode Island (CCRI), for creating this website. Under the leadership of Professor Sandra Luzzi Sneesby (who is also a Girl Scout troop leader!), the New Media Group worked with us for more than a year on the concept, design and launch, which took place in January 2011. The students spent countless volunteer hours on this project, all while taking classes and working on other jobs! We would especially like to thank Manny Rebello, Brendalee Peckham-Bell, Lydia Rogers, Caroline Halliwell, and Irene Cicerone for so generously sharing their time, creativity and talent. They acted like true professionals. The result is a wonderful new “face” for Girl Scouts of Rhode Island, Inc. as we embark on our second century of Girl Scouting. Thank you, one and all!

Click here to find out more about the New Media Group