

While we are all anxious about the Swine Flu outbreak, we do not yet know the scope of this disease and what, if any, affect this will have on Girl Scout activities. At this time, GSRI Inc., will leave the decision to participate in meetings and activities at the discretion of individual troop leaders and parents.

We are following developments closely and recommend that you check the CDC website for the most recent updates.

<http://www.cdc.gov/swineflu>